2020/2021 Impact during Covid

- Summer 2020: Ran a facemask poster design competition to encourage use of facemasks and sold limited edition JTP facemasks. All proceeds were rolled over to purchase more than 100 reusable cloth facemask for the JSD employees.
- Funded hands on science kits for grades K-6 in the amount of $10,261.
- Initiated the Student Ambassadors program of the JEF with current 11th and 12th graders contributing to our Board. We envision this program leading towards increased Alumni support and connections.
- Sought to make stronger connections in our Borough by initiating introductory meetings with the JCA (Jenkintown Community Alliance), Jenkintown Library, Jenkintown Democratic Committee.
- Sponsored our 3rd annual Used Clothing Drive, which was a success! Next one is 10/16/21.
- Secured a $500 donation to support diversity initiative in the District and was able to leverage this gift to 3x with various matching gifts.
- Our JEA member, Mr. Jason Slowik, utilized his talents to support the JCA "Art Hearts" in the borough business district.
- Ran another successful FB Fundraiser to fund another water bottle refill station in the High School in the amount of $1435; completely funded 2 waterstations.
- September 2021; Awarded literacy grant through Dollar General to support building a diverse and inclusive classroom library in the MS/HS Learning Support classroom.
- Assisted the district in applying for the next round of STOP funding. If awarded, the grant is over 400K.
- Secured $6605 in donations in honor of Dr. Hart and are earmarked to assist the district in DEI initiatives.

Recent Total Impact:

$247,715
